of the British Basketball League since the 1988-89 season. The season featured 8 teams. The league featured 2 arenas that were again used, the Power House in Kingston and the London Arena in London. Teams Promotion and relegation The teams relegated from the 1993-94 season were Illingworth Gunners and Richmond Hoops, both finishing bottom of the 1993-94 National League. They were replaced by the champions of the National League, Welwyn Garden City, and runners-up, Kingston Kings, who were part of the third tier National Basketball League for the 1994-95 season. Team changes The Milton Keynes Lions joined the league after winning the conference title of the National League. They played as Milton Keynes Rangers during the season. Following the inaugural season of the NBBL, the Leicester Riders joined the league. Season
