This is a game about a giant dragon and a wizard that he has to fight with an epic journey... So it's a game that you play on mobile. The game grid is 8 * 8 squares long and you can play it in turns. Each round consists of a turn-based planning phase, and, if you want, a turn-based action phase. The difficulty is from "easy" to "very hard". Some levels have a story. This is for phones that run Android 9 (Oreo).

This game is a turn-based strategy game with some fighting elements. You can move your units during planning and it becomes a fighting game when you want to attack your enemies. On the other hand, enemies have the same abilities. When the game starts you can get 5 units: warrior, wizard, archer and the queen. Each unit walks in a different number of squares on the grid. You will take turns playing around with your opponent. When your unit and your opponent are on the same square, the game will turn into an action fighting game. Whoever wins the battle will gain a space in that square. About The Game The King's Treasure 2: This is a sequel of The King's Treasure. This is a game about a treasure and its fight for the king. game! If you like my game or have any feedback please let me know by leaving a comment, or support by pressing the like button, and subscribing! Capsule Computers with ARRIVE, ARRIVE, ARRIVE is what I'm about in this update! Hello all, the big news to announce is what's been brewing in my subconscious for sometime: ARRIVE, ARRIVE, ARRIVE! I know that you have been asking for a new map, but have yet to receive it. The real reason for not pushing it out was cause it was something I thought I'd have to do on my own, but there's a team of people out there that want to do that much better than me! What is "ARRIVE" and how does it work? ARRIVE is a map where you have to get from point A to point B without wrecking your tank! Each match is going to be two teams of equal sizes, of which the winning team gets a 10% bonus to their winnings! (If you're a big whale, like me, you get a 20% bonus!) I want to make it a fun and competitive map. If that means changing some things to make things more fair for everyone, I'm all for it! If we feel like we need to re-do the map based on the feedback, this way it's been pre-planned! The advantages to playing ARRIVE is: - Doesn't set up to rain in any one direction! - Works from all sizes of teams! - You can have 2 air lanes so a team of 6 could cover the whole map in the air! - And many more map options! Feel free to post your own maps for the community to use! If you see ARRIVE in action, let me know in the comments! I'll be organizing and organizing this process. It's a lot to be putting together with a map, a season, a tournament and a theme. It'll most likely take some time to get all the pieces in place but this is the biggest endeavor I've ever had!

What's new in Dominion - Base Set: 1st Edition:
