Legends of Iskaria is a long term project aiming to be the best RPG adventure for the Amiga, Dreamcast, Linux and Windows. While the game is still incomplete, we already had many pleasant and encouraging discussions with the public and the press. We hope to release the game in the near future but in the meanwhile, we thought that the moment was ripe for a new updated version of the game, with the plan of including a FOSS game in the next version, in order to show our values to our users. So, in the meantime, this is the time to get it. A: I can't say if I'd enjoy playing it, but it seems to be written in LISP by some people known for their work with TADS. Those people should be proud of what they've produced and whether or not they consider it a successful product is for them to say. Ong & Ong Pte Ltd Ong & Ong Pte Ltd is a Singapore-based international food and beverage conglomerate. Founded by brothers Ong Hock Kwan and Ong Choong Boon in the early 1980s, the company is the second largest food manufacturer in Singapore. It has subsidiaries in Malaysia, China, Thailand, Indonesia, Hong Kong, Australia and India. History Ong & Ong Pte Ltd was founded in 1981 when brothers Ong Hock Kwan and Ong Choong Boon started a food manufacturing business in Singapore. A year later, they established business interests in Malaysia, acquiring a 9.75% stake in the Ipoh-based Foxhill Food Industries (now Boon Hiew Seafood) which they later acquired 100% control of. Due to the political instability in Malaysia, the brothers shifted their focus towards Indonesia and established a joint venture with Indofood, known as Indofood Ever Green. The group established new business interests in Thailand through its acquisition of Danupap and was also involved in the restaurant and retail industry, establishing a chain of food stores called Tambun and Fast Food in Singapore. Fast forward to today, Ong & Ong Pte Ltd has established businesses interests in China (in 2016 the brand sub-brands Siang's and Willow China were acquired by its parent company to expand into China), Malaysia, Hong Kong, India, Australia and Indonesia. In 2016, the group's parent company, Ong & Ong Pte Ltd, was acquired by PSA International for S$1.42 billion

Pine Valley Institute is a charitable organization that operates internationally in extreme environments and high-threat zones. As the Middle East manager, your mission is to open up an international combat school to train and equip civilians to deal with terrorism. This is more than just a hunting ground... this is a war zone. On a shipment of weapons, you discover a brutal murder and a mystery man desperately clinging to life. The police tell you there's a missing intern from your institute. You try to find them before they fall apart. Before you know it, you're on the run. It's just you and a man you hardly know. And there's a whole lot of guns to shoot... After many years of fighting in hell, he's alone and now in a hospital full of sick patients. This time, it's your job to take the doctor's body to the grave. But someone had other plans. Now you're in the thick of the action. It's time to save the future of mankind... or die trying. Features: + 8 chapters + More than 60 updated weapons + Special weapon skills + Black and White Art Style + Original voice cast + A total of 6 different endings + Hidden Mid-game Boss + 5 different endings

Cupid in Love Haruka: Freshman intern, Ace Division. Her specialty is pacemaking, or just being an innocent girl. She cares deeply about her friends, but she has a secret crush. Takuma: Student from Europe. A graduate of the elite security force, he joined the institute as a rookie. Now he's working as a mailman and taking care of puppies. Risako: Freshman intern, Ace Division. Resisting the urge to call anyone an idiot ("Hello?" is already too long), she has a bumbling personality. She's also the ace of cards, and was named after the card. Her hobbies are raccoons and chocolate. Ouran High School Host Club: Kyouya Tachibana: Student, 2nd year. Kyouya is fond of his little sister, Ryona, and is definitely the class president. With his pet satan, Rouge, at his side, he

- The One Ring of Illuminascii is a text based first person shooter with roguelike elements.
- While procedurally generated, all game content is based around semi-randomized content.
- This means that any character you create is unique.
- The powers of your characters and items are decided by random logic
- Cutscenes can be altered by character attributes
- An ascii random number generator is used to increase player immersion.
- Any events will be in text format and do not require the use of cutscenes.
- The purpose of story text is to create a great story. Read them to create a unique experience.

As it is an early access game, there might be bugs and some things might not be polished enough to see them. This is fine. We're building this game as a hobby project so we do not expect perfection. We do, however, expect the game to be fun and playable after some time. The goal of this project is to ensure this game is a fun experience for anyone that plays it. With this in mind, we've made the following expectations 1) We expect the game to be fun to play and it does not need to be perfect. 2) We expect to be able to make changes to the project at any time. 3) We expect to make feature requests such as adding a save feature. 4) There should always be new content being added to the game, just as it is being played. 5) We expect to work together with the community to ensure this project stays alive.
