I'm back to talk about another title in the "Greatness series" by Lim Joo Jin. Namely, the awesome title called "MBC Greatness" and we can start by stating that this is pretty much the same as it was in "Whisper of Perfection" but this time around its a bit more casual. It seems that there aren't the strict rules this time, more or less it's a

▼The basics – The holy sword of the Elden Ring. The user wields it using an iconic controller that allows you to move your character freely with ease. – The high-quality breastplate that grants high defense, allowing you to survive for a longer period of time. – The helmet that grants protection against the magic of nearby enemies, and allows you to see enemies that are several meters away. – The lower body armor that grants high-level strength, as well as defense against physical attacks. – The long sword, which is close to a sword in terms of weight and durability, but has a speed that is twice as fast as a sword. – The Wand of Arcane Script, the magic of writing, the magic of legend, which taps the power of the spirit of the land. - The boots that allow you to achieve maximum speed, making your speed 2.5 times as high as a human. - The shield that grants powerful defense, absorbing an enemy's defense and causing damage to its opponent, and the ability to withstand a serious attack. - The staff that grants powerful defensive properties, increasing your defense level by a third and making you invincible. ▼Dual Character Builds - Bear>Wolf - Crusader>Warrior - Mage>Knight - Berserker>Warrior - Warrior>Bear - Knight>Bear - Wizard>Crusader - Berserker>Warrior>Mage - Wizard>Mage>Crusader - Wizard>Crusader>Bear - Warrior>Mage>Bear - Wizard>Mage>Knight - Blade>Wand>Sword - Blade>Bear>Wand - Blade>Wand>Sword>Wand - Blade>Wand>Wand>Sword - Blade>Wand>Bear - Blade>Bear>Wand - Blade>Wand>Sword - Blade>Wand>Bear>Wand>Bear - Blade>Wand>Wand>Sword - Blade>Wand>Wand>Bear - Sword>Shield>Blade - Sword>Wand - Sword>Wand>Blade - Sword>Wand>Blade>Wand - Sword>Wand>Wand>Blade - Sword>Wand>Wand>Bear - Sword>Wand>Wand>Wand - Sword>Wand>Wand

Thirteen Trinamool Congress (TMC) legislators have left the party and joined the ruling All India Trinamool Congress (AITC) in the just completed assembly session. The lawmakers have resigned from the party and pledged their support to Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee's party. TMC minister and state Congress chief Adhir Ranjan Chowdhury has welcomed the new members. Among the newly elected lawmakers who had sworn allegiance to the AITC are former minister from Bolpur, Jaswant Singh Menon and Ramchandra Singh from Panskura. The list also includes former minister from Adra, Chandan Kumar Ray and former minister from Kolkata CPM leader Gautam Deb. "The legislators are ready for a united front for the good of the people of West Bengal," said Chowdhury. "We have taken full responsibility of their resignations," said Pradip Bhattacharya, party spokesperson. "Besides, we will give them party tickets." He said that it was for the last session that they had approached the AITC. "They have decided to jump into the water. They will have to take their own decision for what will come next," said Bhattacharya. "They will be given tickets and we will help them to win," said Bhattacharya.

The UN Security Council has voted unanimously to extend the arms embargo on North Korea, condemning Pyongyang's latest nuclear test and unanimously agreeing that ballistic missile launches are a threat to international peace and security.

The sanctions on North Korea's nuclear and missile programme were extended by a month to 15 January 2017, the statement from the Security Council on Friday evening said. The 15-0 vote was split along US, Russian and Chinese lines, with each member state abstaining. The resolution "condemns in the strongest terms" a September 6 nuclear test in North Korea, which violated UN resolutions. The Security Council "unanimously condemns in the strongest terms the recent ballistic missile launch" on October 4 "in flagrant violation of Security Council resolutions." It "calls upon all States in the region to fully implement the measures and requests that all States, through dialogue, cease all activities of a nature to increase tensions in the region."
