In what is a trickier way of inaugurating a new president, Ms Tsai was sworn in on June 20th, on a pile of cash worth around NT$20,000,000,000 or roughly NT$100,000,000,000,000 (worth roughly $3,300,000,000,000). Taiwan's Central Bank has not released any details of what the bill is made of, other than it is from Japan. Ms Tsai is the first sitting president to be inaugurated under the governing Democratic Progressive Party, since the Kuomintang had dominated Taiwan's politics since the island won its independence from the colonial Japanese Empire in 1945. Tsai Ing-wen, a former law professor, is the first female president of Taiwan. d41b202975

1) These dwarves are not goblins. In fact, they are far more intelligent and cunning than most goblins. In the above example, they have just climbed over the fence to steal a pitchfork from the farmer next door and use it to smash the weasel goblins before fleeing. They can be hired to rid a village of goblins! 2) Be careful when choosing your dwarves, they are very smart and cunning. They will not hesitate to use a pitchfork to attack the weasel goblins when they see fit. They are also skilled miners, so beware when digging! 3) Beware, be very careful when hiring dwarves. They will not hesitate to use a pitchfork to attack the weasel goblins when they see fit. They are also skilled miners, so beware when digging! 4) You can hire dwarves in order to use their mining equipment to build houses and arenas around your own village. They will also work to repair the arenas if they are damaged. 5) You can hire dwarves in order to use their mining equipment to build houses and arenas around your own village. What's new:

- Icarus This is the Dwarfs Summer Carnival, packed into a PDF. Scroll down for links. Sculpting: Only two variations are permitted at once. Variables: You choose whether it's basic or advanced (from which you can change finished or middle, set gravity, etc), how many targets you want to sculpt, and a few others. Variables are set at default values, then actually set by you. You can change as much as you want, or do as little as the default needs, but a big warning will be displayed when you screw things up. Interface should make it pretty easy to see which features you've overridden/disabled. And then when you're done everything will be reset to the defaults. Options: RHD supports all the same options as the regular setting pack. This package contains only the Dwarfs in RHD, but they are identical to CMN Prima above and below. links: basic: advanced: sculpters description: sculpters description.txt: Locations (finished): Trade terminal (reward), piping station, mid city, construction site (reward), mining station (phazing), mining settlement (phazing) (background), dig site (end of run), assembly line, dig site, in a box with other locations and caves in a box with other locations and caves (4 locations added to a chunk at once). Characters: Fabio, Gloom, King, Mountain, Selene, Sharky, Sleepy, Tor, Turbo, Undertow, and Wild Thrasher. Investigate: Optional. Most players won't need a crayon. Additional notes added. NPC Character Developers: Save state is recorded, and there is a save state button on the main screen when it's done. Also, if you have a VD that overlays the base game a lot (like mine does), it records.
