Builders Of The Adytum Private Lessons 150 PDFs

The first lesson focuses on the history of the function of the Cross as it has been understood by the Builders. This is followed by a lesson on the Trancendental Plane. Builders Of The Adytum 153 The student is at his desk, a candle is burning in front of him, and he is thinking of a goal to strive for. He begins to meditate on the Thought Adjuster whose interests are in this goal. He continues to meditate until he becomes aware of a feeling of a deep sympathy, which seems to extend to all living beings. It is with him an old, familiar friend. He knows that his friend will be a close associate of his daily thoughts and actions. He is aware of the high duty which he owes his friend, and realizes that if he fails to carry it out, that friendship will suffer. That very day he commits a penance and goes to confession, promising himself to "Put right my life if it's possible. " He is aware that that life is Divine love. He is aware that the life will be an expression of that love. His awareness grows. He thinks of many other lessons. He feels that all the teachings he has received are now being put into action. Master Theron then comes to the library, where the student is waiting, and he enters the room, as you see, with an ever increasing feeling of satisfaction and joy. Master Theron is indeed there with him. He greets the student. The student greets him with a feeling of appreciation. This appreciation, however, does not need a reason. The students' appreciation comes from the appreciation of the Student Theosophy. It has to do with the appreciation of Theosophy as a philosophy in general. The philosophy which inspired the building of the Adytum and then it has to do with the philosophy of Theosophy, the Theosophical philosophy. 5ec8ef588b
