Application Expired 8500 Tecdoc

I want to create a tool that looks at TecDoc message (with list of products and parts), reads user's actions on the list, and creates the list of products that could be used in an order. I am sending a security token to Azure AD. It works with my iOS application and on desktop, but not with Android. client is redirecting to Microsoft azure ADFS where its sending a RequestSecurityTokenResponse back to client.
